Introduction

Fix Me! A1 proofreading not yet effective for this page. In the meantime, you can ask any questions on the forum.

This wiki constitutes the manual for Gestan, business management software. Its aim is that you can be totally autonomous in the operation of your Gestan. We constantly update it, and complete it based on the questions asked.

The wiki is supplemented by a user forum, which brings together more than 6000 users and a Youtube channel .

The Gestan hotline technicians are also at your disposal for any telephone support requests.

For in-depth needs, we offer formations, the content of which can be modulated according to needs, and the cost of which can be taken into account. borne by the training organization to which your company is attached.

All new versions are reported on our twitter thread, and detailed on the page change-list from the forum. Finally, additional information is published on our accounts Linkedin and Facebook. Subscribe !

Happy use of Gestan!

Latest updates on the wiki

The release of any new version is reported via @Gestan_logiciel, with a link to the change list of version.

In certain cases (blocking bug, urgent one-off need), we can make intermediate versions of Gestan available.

You can subscribe to all or part of this wiki, using the buttons on the right side. This way, you can receive an automatic notification whenever a change occurs.

(By the way, we thank the entire team of Dokuwiki, open-source software, free, and without database, which makes it possible to publish this wiki. A must.)
