This program allows you to import contracts into Gestan.

The input file must comply with the constitution standards described below.

Using the screen

Access: Tool → Administration → Data import → Import contracts

We recommend making a prior backup of the database before using this program, in order to be able to make an easy restoration if necessary.

Fix Me!

Select the source file to process. It must respect the constitutional standards explained below. Specify the separator used in the input file.

The Load button allows you to load the data for processing.

The Integrate button then allows you to create the records in the database.

Input file format

Note that you can put any necessary comment line, starting it with the “#” character.
